StoryCorps Father's Day v1 :60

Right now, we all might feel a little disconnected. Especially for seniors who are living alone with smaller social circles of friends and family. On this Father's Day, older men in our lives may feel especially lonely and isolated. But there is something simple we can all do to help: Connect with them through StoryCorps Connect.

StoryCorps Connect allows you to conduct an interview with your loved one remotely. Anyone can conduct a virtual interview, and every interview will be archived at the Library of Congress, becoming part of American history, so that hundreds of years from now, future generations can listen in.

This Father's Day is a perfect time to reach out and connect with your older loved one and ease their feelings of isolation.

You can create something extraordinary this Father's Day, by having the conversation of a lifetime. Find out how at StoryCorpsConnect.org/AARP. That's StoryCorpsConnect.org/AARP.

Connect. Honor. Share. With StoryCorps Connect. A message from AARP, StoryCorps, and the Ad Council.
