Coronavirus Response Campaign

Suggested Social Copy – General Public

This document includes suggested social copy for you to share Coronavirus Response campaign messaging with your online community.

Social Videos

- #StayHome if you can. You can help slow the spread of coronavirus and help save lives. We're in this together. Visit coronavirus.gov for more information. #AloneTogether
- Now more than ever, we need everyone to be selfless for others. That means you should #StayHome, if you can, to lower the risk for everyone. We're in this together. Learn more at coronavirus.gov. #AloneTogether
- It's important to #StayHome, if you can, to lower the risk for others. Even if you don't have any symptoms, you can still spread the virus without knowing it. Learn ways you can protect yourself and others at coronavirus.gov. #AloneTogether
- It's important for everyone to #StayHome, if you can, to protect yourself and others. Avoid travel, shopping and social visits. Learn how you can slow the spread at coronavirus.gov. #AloneTogether
- Even if you feel healthy, it's important to #StayHome, if you can, to lower the risk for everyone. Learn more at coronavirus.gov.
- If you can, #StayHome to help protect you, your family, health care workers and first responders slow the spread of coronavirus. Learn more at coronavirus.gov.
- You can help slow the spread of coronavirus. Practice social distancing and #StayHome, if you can, to help save lives. Visit coronavirus.gov for the latest tips and information from the CDC. #AloneTogether
- If you are in contact with others be sure to stay at least six feet—or two arms-length—away. By practicing social distancing and limiting your interactions with others, you can help save lives. Visit coronavirus.gov for the latest tips and information from the CDC. #AloneTogether